

FOILED AGAIN GOES 'FOURTH' IN QUEST FOR NO. 100
BY FRANK DRUCKER, Publicity Director, Empire City @ Yonkers Raceway

YONKERS, NY, Wednesday, February 21, 2018—The Foiled Again saga continues Thursday night (Feb. 22nd), with the venue (Yonkers Raceway) and the quest (100 career wins) remaining the same.

It's the fourth crack at the milestone for harness racing's richest-ever equine ($7,570,878) in his 308th career purse start. Foiled Again drew post position No. 3 in the $20,000, eighth-race pace. First post is 6:50 PM, with approximate post for the eighth at 9:30 PM

George Brennan drives for co-owner (as Burke Racing)/trainer Ron Burke. The 14-year-old Dragon Again gelding won (with Brennan) his seasonal debut, moving him to the precipice of the plateau. He hit the board once (a third-place finish) in three subsequent starts.

Foiled Again has raced at the same (non-winners of $20,000 in last five starts) in every start this season.

Accompanying this release are...

- a program page of Thursday's eighth race
- Foiled Again's career local race lines (courtesy of the U-S Trotting Association)
- a list of harness racing winningest horses (foals of 1973 forward)\
- some Mike Lizzi photos of the subject.

-30-

(photos-Mike Lizzi-accompany)

(FFI...Frank Drucker, Yonkers Raceway Publicity Director, 914-968-4200)