

YONKERS' EMPIRE TERRACE OPEN FOR SUNDAY BRUNCH SEPT. 2
BY FRANK DRUCKER, Publicity Director, Empire City @ Yonkers Raceway

YONKERS, NY, Wednesday, August 29, 2018—In conjunction with the final of Yonkers Raceway's inaugural French-American Trotting Club Series, the Empire Terrace shall offer a brunch buffet this Sunday (Sept. 2nd).

The Terrace opens at 11:30 AM in advance of that afternoon's first post of 12:15 PM.

The Raceway's French guests, as well as horsemen, owners and fans, can watch the races while enjoying 'themed' delicacies including French toast, Coq au Vin, Ratatouille, Enchaud Perigourdin pork loins, pasta with lobster meat in a cream sauce, an omelette station and other selections.

The cost for the buffet is $24.95 per person (plus tax and gratuities), though there is no charge for participants in the French-American Trotting Club, courtesy of the Standardbred Owners Association of New York.

For reservations, please call (914) 457-2457. Please note that Trotting Club members are also requested to use the number to make their reservations.

As a reminder, the Terrace is also open Saturday night (Sept. 1st) for the Raceway's pair of half-million-dollar Triple Crown events, the 64th Yonkers Trot and 63rd Messenger Stakes. Use the above number for reservations.
